

John W. Bubbles - LP (John William Sublett - February 19, 1902 – May 18, 1986)

Promotional copy

- | | | | | |
|------|------------------|---|-------------------------------|---------------|
| 1053 | Bubbles, John W. | Bubbles Blues/Someone to watch over me | Vee Jay 624 (US) Promo | 8.1964 |
| 1424 | Bubbles, John W. | Bubbles Blues/Someone to watch over me | Vee Jay 624 (US) | 8.1964 |

Leon plays piano on both tracks. "Bubbles Blues" is a great Leon track! The bluesiest piano you have ever heard from him.

On track 2 is a nice choir! Together with Ford L. "Buck" Washington, Bubbles was part of the vaudeville duo "Buck and Bubbles" (piano and tap-dance).

Bubbles created the role of Sportin' Life in Gershwin's opera "Porgy and Bess" in 1935.

Promotional DJ copy

- | | | | | |
|------|------------------|--|-------------------------|-------------|
| 1420 | Bubbles, John W. | My mother's eyes/Without a song | Vee Jay 671 (US) | 1964 |
|------|------------------|--|-------------------------|-------------|

Leon on piano on both in the background and on 1 he does a nice outro!